Investigative Field Interviewing: Strategies for Patrol Officers

In today's challenging law enforcement landscape, patrol officers face various situations, from high-risk traffic stops to intricate homicide investigations. Our comprehensive course is crafted to arm patrol officers with the critical skills to conduct practical and ethical field interviews, ensuring reliable information gathering in any scenario.

Our curriculum goes beyond theory, offering a proven blueprint for success. Crafted with evidence-based research, it improves the accuracy and reliability of the information you gather and aims to reduce the risk of false confessions. This specialized training program focuses on advanced conversation management methodologies, aiming to refine your interviewing skills and promote open, honest communication.

Comprehensive Course Topics Include:

- Legal Basics and Ethical Considerations
- Fundamentals of Field Interviewing
- Rapid Personality Assessment Techniques
- Rapport Building Methods
- Interpreting Baseline Behavior
- Techniques for Preventing Coercion and Misinformation
- Effective Engagement with Victims and Witnesses
- Suspect Interview Strategies
- Cognitive Interviewing
