

Attorney - Senior Legal Instructor

Anthony Bandiero

Blue to Gold Mini-Sessions

Gifts included when you Pre-Register:

- (1) Search & Seizure Survival Guide Book
- (1) $50 Webinar Gift Card
- (1) Blue to Gold Challenge Coin

**Must check in at Booth #1910 at the time of the session to receive your free gifts.\*Seats are limited, please arrive early.

Sunday | Oct 20th

11:00am - 11:30am

Duty to Intervene: Culture Beats Policy

This session could address the critical issue of an officer's duty to intervene when witnessing another officer committing a constitutional violation, such as unlawful searches, seizures, or excessive force.

3:00pm - 3:30pm

Curtilage, Cops, and Courts: The Most Violated Area under the 4A

This session would focus on helping chiefs understand the legal nuances of curtilage—the area immediately surrounding a home that is afforded Fourth Amendment protection.

Monday | Oct 21st

11:00am - 11:30pm

Curtilage, Cops, and Courts: The Most Violated Area under the 4A

This session would focus on helping chiefs understand the legal nuances of curtilage—the area immediately surrounding a home that is afforded Fourth Amendment protection.

1:00pm - 1:30pm

K9s and Traffic Stops: When does Sniff become a Search

This session would focus on the legal parameters surrounding the use of K9 units during traffic stops.

3:00pm - 3:30pm

Report Writing Techniques to Win Every Case

This session could focus on how to properly document search and seizure incidents in a way that withstands judicial scrutiny. Chiefs need to ensure that their officers write reports that clearly articulate the basis for probable cause, reasonable suspicion, consent, and exigent circumstances.

Tuesday | Oct 22nd

10:30am - 11:00pm

K9s and Traffic Stops: When does Sniff become a Search

This session would focus on the legal parameters surrounding the use of K9 units during traffic stops.

12:00pm - 12:30pm

Duty to Intervene: Culture Beats Policy

This session could address the critical issue of an officer's duty to intervene when witnessing another officer committing a constitutional violation, such as unlawful searches, seizures, or excessive force.