TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Live Online

Closed training for Charleston Fire Department

Miranda & Beyond

This 4-hour course provides a comprehensive overview of the constitutional principles governing evidence admissibility in police investigations, focusing on the Fifth, Sixth, and Fourteenth Amendments. Key topics include Miranda rule violations, involuntary confessions, suggestive identification procedures, and the right to counsel. Participants will examine relevant court decisions and practical examples to understand how these principles apply in real-world cases. By the end, attendees will be prepared to conduct effective investigations while respecting constitutional rights.

Wednesday, February 5, 2025 | Time: 8:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Constitutional Policing

Constitutional Policing training focuses on individual comprehension of constitutional limits and organizational leadership to ensure lawful and effective practices. This program equips leaders to strengthen policies, training, and oversight in areas such as arrest, detention, search, and interrogation. It emphasizes ethical standards, public trust, and compliance to reduce legal risks while maintaining law enforcement effectiveness.
