TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Canton, Georgia

Hosted by the Canton Police Department (GA)

Search & Seizure Workshop

Understanding the Fourth Amendment is essential for law enforcement officers who want to build strong cases that hold up in court. This 2-day workshop takes a hands-on approach, ensuring officers actively engage with the material instead of just sitting through a lecture.

The course uses scenario-based discussions, guided by an instructor who challenges officers with thought-provoking questions and counterarguments. Each session wraps up with a detailed explanation of the proper legal framework, supported by case law, to ensure officers leave with a solid foundation.

By participating fully, officers will reduce the risk of evidence suppression and lower both individual and agency liability.
