TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Knoxville, Tennessee

Hosted by the Knox County Sheriff's Office

Advanced Criminal Investigations

Tough cases call for solid legal skills and a deep understanding of what the courts expect from your work. This course builds on what you already know and takes it up a notch. It helps you tackle advanced search and seizure issues, manage informants, and navigate tricky legal situations with confidence—all while making sure your cases stand up in court. You'll learn about complex legal issues that come up in major cases—like search warrants, managing informants, and working in high-risk environments. The course highlights the importance of knowing the law inside and out so that your work is solid in court. You'll also learn practical ways to handle arrests, searches, and other challenges without getting tripped up by technicalities.

Law Enforcement Liability

Potential liability is an ever-present reality for law enforcement officers and agencies. Over the last decade, liability claims have risen sharply, making it a $3.2 billion industry—fueled by increased public awareness and scrutiny of police actions that can lead to constitutional violations and misconduct. This course provides officers—and especially supervisors, training officers, and command staff—with a comprehensive overview of the most common types of liability in both criminal and civil courts. Students will leave the course with the knowledge and tools to prevent, recognize, and mitigate potential liability risks

Tuesday, September 15, 2026 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $225

Case Law for Command Staff and Supervisors

Understanding the complexities of the Fourth Amendment can be a challenge for any officer, but it's critical that supervisors and command staff have a solid grasp of case law. When incidents unfold and quick decisions are needed, those in leadership roles must know what the law allows—and why—so they can provide clear, legally defensible guidance. This course is designed to give supervisors and command staff the knowledge and confidence to handle search and seizure issues that arise in the field. It serves as a practical resource for those who must guide their teams through challenging situations while ensuring constitutional compliance.
