Advanced Search & Seizure

Knowing when and how to conduct a search or seizure is a critical part of good police work. This course breaks down the Fourth Amendment and how it applies on the street, giving officers the tools they need to make solid, defensible decisions in the field. You'll get hands-on with the legal foundations behind search and seizure—when you can act, when you need consent or a warrant, and what happens when you cross the line. We'll cover both federal and state cases to make sure you're ready no matter where you work. Through case studies and real-world scenarios, you'll build the confidence to handle these situations the right way.

Tuesday, September 29, 2026 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $225

Bulletproof Report Writing

A well-written report can be the difference between a strong case and one that falls apart in court. This course gives officers the tools to write clear, detailed reports that stand up to legal scrutiny and support successful prosecutions. You'll learn how to put your observations and actions into words that make sense to judges, prosecutors, and defense attorneys alike. From explaining probable cause to describing what you saw and did, you'll build the skills to write reports that are thorough and easy to follow. The course also shows how solid documentation can discourage suppression motions and help you recall key details when testifying in court.

Wednesday, September 30, 2026 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $225

Bulletproof Courtroom Testimony

Standing up in court and telling your side of the story is a big part of being a cop—and one that can make or break your case. This course helps officers sharpen their courtroom skills so they can deliver testimony that's confident, clear, and stands up under the toughest cross-examinations. Through a mix of classroom sessions, practical exercises, and realistic role-playing, you'll get comfortable with everything from prepping your case to handling curveball questions from defense attorneys. We'll cover the entire courtroom journey, with a focus on being prepared, professional, and persuasive.
