Case Law for Command Staff and Supervisors

Understanding the complexities of the Fourth Amendment can be a challenge for any officer, but it's critical that supervisors and command staff have a solid grasp of case law. When incidents unfold and quick decisions are needed, those in leadership roles must know what the law allows—and why—so they can provide clear, legally defensible guidance. This course is designed to give supervisors and command staff the knowledge and confidence to handle search and seizure issues that arise in the field. It serves as a practical resource for those who must guide their teams through challenging situations while ensuring constitutional compliance.

Tuesday, August 18, 2026 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $225

Advanced Criminal Investigations

Tough cases call for solid legal skills and a deep understanding of what the courts expect from your work. This course builds on what you already know and takes it up a notch. It helps you tackle advanced search and seizure issues, manage informants, and navigate tricky legal situations with confidence—all while making sure your cases stand up in court. You'll learn about complex legal issues that come up in major cases—like search warrants, managing informants, and working in high-risk environments. The course highlights the importance of knowing the law inside and out so that your work is solid in court. You'll also learn practical ways to handle arrests, searches, and other challenges without getting tripped up by technicalities.

Bulletproof Report Writing

A well-written report can be the difference between a strong case and one that falls apart in court. This course gives officers the tools to write clear, detailed reports that stand up to legal scrutiny and support successful prosecutions. You'll learn how to put your observations and actions into words that make sense to judges, prosecutors, and defense attorneys alike. From explaining probable cause to describing what you saw and did, you'll build the skills to write reports that are thorough and easy to follow. The course also shows how solid documentation can discourage suppression motions and help you recall key details when testifying in court.
