Advanced Search & Seizure

Knowing when and how to conduct a search or seizure is a critical part of good police work. This course breaks down the Fourth Amendment and how it applies on the street, giving officers the tools they need to make solid, defensible decisions in the field. You'll get hands-on with the legal foundations behind search and seizure—when you can act, when you need consent or a warrant, and what happens when you cross the line. We'll cover both federal and state cases to make sure you're ready no matter where you work. Through case studies and real-world scenarios, you'll build the confidence to handle these situations the right way.

Bulletproof Report Writing

A well-written report can be the difference between a strong case and one that falls apart in court. This course gives officers the tools to write clear, detailed reports that stand up to legal scrutiny and support successful prosecutions. You'll learn how to put your observations and actions into words that make sense to judges, prosecutors, and defense attorneys alike. From explaining probable cause to describing what you saw and did, you'll build the skills to write reports that are thorough and easy to follow. The course also shows how solid documentation can discourage suppression motions and help you recall key details when testifying in court.

Tuesday, June 30, 2026 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $225

Case Law for Command Staff and Supervisors

Understanding the complexities of the Fourth Amendment can be a challenge for any officer, but it's critical that supervisors and command staff have a solid grasp of case law. When incidents unfold and quick decisions are needed, those in leadership roles must know what the law allows—and why—so they can provide clear, legally defensible guidance. This course is designed to give supervisors and command staff the knowledge and confidence to handle search and seizure issues that arise in the field. It serves as a practical resource for those who must guide their teams through challenging situations while ensuring constitutional compliance.
