Advanced Search & Seizure

Knowing when and how to conduct a search or seizure is a critical part of good police work. This course breaks down the Fourth Amendment and how it applies on the street, giving officers the tools they need to make solid, defensible decisions in the field. You'll get hands-on with the legal foundations behind search and seizure—when you can act, when you need consent or a warrant, and what happens when you cross the line. We'll cover both federal and state cases to make sure you're ready no matter where you work. Through case studies and real-world scenarios, you'll build the confidence to handle these situations the right way.

Tuesday, August 18, 2026 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $125

Advanced Traffic Stops

Making a traffic stop is one of the most common—and sometimes most legally tricky—things cops do. This course helps officers sharpen their skills in making stops that are both effective and legally solid. You'll get a handle on the real-world application of constitutional principles so your stops hold up in court and build trust with the community. You'll learn the nuts and bolts of key traffic stop topics—like the motor vehicle exception, pretext stops, vehicle searches, and passenger questioning. We'll also cover the big court decisions that shape how you do your job, and dig into things like K9 sniffs, inventories, and probable cause searches.

Wednesday, August 19, 2026 | Time: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM | Cost: $125

Case Law for Command Staff and Supervisors

Understanding the complexities of the Fourth Amendment can be a challenge for any officer, but it's critical that supervisors and command staff have a solid grasp of case law. When incidents unfold and quick decisions are needed, those in leadership roles must know what the law allows—and why—so they can provide clear, legally defensible guidance. This course is designed to give supervisors and command staff the knowledge and confidence to handle search and seizure issues that arise in the field. It serves as a practical resource for those who must guide their teams through challenging situations while ensuring constitutional compliance.
