Case Law for Command Staff and Supervisors

Understanding the complexities of the Fourth Amendment can be a challenge for any officer, but it's critical that supervisors and command staff have a solid grasp of case law. When incidents unfold and quick decisions are needed, those in leadership roles must know what the law allows—and why—so they can provide clear, legally defensible guidance. This course is designed to give supervisors and command staff the knowledge and confidence to handle search and seizure issues that arise in the field. It serves as a practical resource for those who must guide their teams through challenging situations while ensuring constitutional compliance.

Duty to Intervene

Being ready to step in when things go wrong is a key part of building trust—both within the department and in the community. This course gives officers the skills and knowledge they need to recognize when intervention is necessary and to act confidently and safely. You'll learn about the legal requirements and department policies that spell out the duty to intervene, and why it matters. The course also covers the serious consequences of failing to act, including discipline, lawsuits, and even criminal charges. Through real-life case studies and scenarios, you'll develop the confidence to do the right thing—while keeping yourself and your colleagues safe.
